SKIN BOOSTERS

Information Sheet

Skin boosters are injectables that improve skin texture elasticity hydration and overall appearance the treatment involves injecting Hyaluronic Acid (HA) which is a soft gel light substance under the skin which improves the skin elasticity furnace and radiance giving an overall skin quality skin boosters are often called skin quality as a improvement enhance the overall quality in the skin Skin boosters were brilliantly on to target dryness, roughness and fine lines and improve skin tone and texture.

Skin booster injection provides a substance that goes naturally in the skin and holds incredible amounts of moisture however hyaluronic acid depletes with many factors including age sun damage genetics smoking and environmental factors which is what causes skin to become dry and dehydrated Micro injections of hyaluronic acid restores and moisture in the skin which improves its elasticity firmness and radiance.

Skin boosters are injected using micro droplet or make massotherapy technique of tiny injections. This process of delivering skin boosters also triggers the skin's own repair resulting in collagen production and improve skin as elasticity Depending on the type of skin booster and ingredients. Some of the potential benefits include:

- Improved and more radiant complex complexion.
- Reduction and fine lines and wrinkles.
- Healthier skin tone.
- Better hydration glowing skin.
- Firm skin texture and tone.
- Improve skinny elasticity.
- Reduce dry patches.
- Improved over appearance in skin tone

